

The Continental Trail Attack 2 is adventure bike tyre that shines on paved surfaces. The Germans did well by this tyre designing it specifically for road use on big, torquey dual-sport motorcycles. It has a strong 0° steel belt construction and on the front tyre the progressive tread pattern ensures precision wear behaviour. These tyres has a high speed rating and comes standard on the KTM 1190 Adventure and BMW R1200GS. It's perfect for everyday use with magnificent grip in all weather conditions and will handle pavements and hard gravel with ease.
